

Right or wrong decisions?

Read each scenario and decide if the decision was right or wrong. Don't forget to ask:

- Was it kind?
- Was it safe?
- Was it healthy?

You want to get the last soccer ball. You run really fast to the ball bin. Another child is about to grab the ball. You push that child out of the way and snatch the ball.	You see a child getting pushed by other students in the playground. You don't know the child being pushed. So, you just continue playing with your friends.
You get home from school and it is time for a snack. You want the special chocolate that is on top of the cupboard. You drag a chair to the cupboard, climb up and grab the chocolate. Yum!	You love playing games on your tablet. You are not allowed to play after dinner. Your parents are not looking, so you sneak your tablet into your room. You hide it in your bed so you can play it later.
You are really, really tired and just want to go to bed. You have been asked to clean your teeth and wash your face. You quickly do both then jump into your cozy bed.	After school, you notice that your parent is not there to meet you. Your friend tells you to run down to the playground nearby and play for a while. You decide to wait with your teacher.
