

Stay OK in the community.

If you get lost or feel unsafe in the community there are people you can trust that help you stay OK, like police officers and shop keepers.

Draw an outline of your hand, in each finger write down a person you could trust (there are some ideas in the sentence above).